

SUBSTANTIAL PROGRESS IN FAR EASTERN PARLEY

POWERS AGREED TO WITHDRAWAL FROM TERRITORY

China Wins Important Point in Getting Concessions.

Washington, Dec. 3.—By The Associated Press) Another important point in the Far Eastern discussions of the armament conference was won today by China in the committee of the nine powers Great Britain, Japan and France agreeing to retire from much of the leased territory of China.

Japanese representatives, it was said, agreed to give up their leased territorial holdings in Shantung and also reported as offering to discuss retirement from their special territorial privileges in Manchuria.

The offer from Great Britain, Japan and France were said to be contingent on fulfillment of conditions which China was expected to meet.

M. Viviani, for France, expressed willingness to retire from Kwan Chow Wai, the French leased territory.

British spokesmen, it was said, followed with a proffer to give up the British leased territory of Wei Hai Wei.

OPTIMISM PREVAILS

Washington, Dec. 3.—(By The Associated Press) With latest developments in negotiations on the question of naval ratio for Japan represented by delegation spokesmen as justifying optimism, although their nature was a closely guarded secret, the whole matter was expected to remain at a standstill today while Baron Kato communicated further on the situation with Tokio.

What new phase the negotiations may have entered as the result of the extended discussion of the ratio question at a conference of the naval "big three" yesterday was still a matter of speculation today. The conferees—Secretary Hughes, Baron Kato and Arthur J. Balfour—as well as the spokesmen for their respective delegations, continued to maintain silence as to what new trend the discussions may have taken, although the situation was reported as having been brought to a favorable stage by the meeting.

Unofficial, but apparently authoritative comment in Japanese circles today suggested the possibility that the question of American fortifications in the Pacific may have entered into the new development in the situation but this was lacking any official confirmation.

Chinese Problems
In resuming discussion of the question of withdrawing foreign troops stationed in China, there was some probability that the Far Eastern committee today would adopt a broadly drawn declaration of general policy on the request of the Chinese delegates. The joint conference of the Japanese and Chinese delegates, which at yesterday's session proceeded at once to an exchange of views on the question of control of the Shantung railway, regarded as the part of the controversy which the conference will endeavor to settle, was in adjournment today, the next meeting being scheduled for Monday.

Negotiations in the naval ratio were probably at a standstill while the Japanese delegates awaited further word from Tokio. The results of yesterday's conference between the principal American, British and Japanese delegates were under study by the Japanese cabinet and the diplomatic advisory council.

5-5-3 Ratio Stands
All indications were that whatever had been proposed as a means of bringing the United States and Japan together did not involve any abandonment of the 5-5-3 ratio proposed by the United States and supported by Great Britain, but rather concerned other considerations which the Japanese regard as necessary to them.

Chief among these was understood to be the question of further fortification of the American bases in the Pacific which the Japanese wish to be checked. The bases are such to fleet ratio that there was a suggestion the Japanese might regard the 5-5-3 proposal as not inconsistent with their standard of naval security if details regarding them could be arranged.

Possible Conditions
There was a decided impression among other delegates, not represented in yesterday's conference of the "Big Three" that a means of approach to a settlement had been found outside of any alteration of the 5-5-3. In general discussion which has been aroused by secrecy which surrounds the latest stage of the negotiations, a number of considerations are being mentioned also among those which might accompany the agreement. One of these is the general feeling that the Anglo-Japa-

HOLSTEIN SALE ANNOUNCED AS SURE FOR DIXON

Will Be Held at Testing Station; Assn. to Meet Also.

The annual state sale of pure bred Holstein cattle will be held in Dixon early next year, according to the announcement given out by C. M. Long, secretary of the Illinois Holstein-Friesian association. Several weeks ago it was announced that Dixon was favorable to the breeders for the place of conducting the annual sale, and the question has now been definitely decided.

The sale will be held after the completion of the cow testing station which is at the present time being rushed with all possible rapidity. It is believed that the plant will be completed about the first week in January and possibly the last week of the present month.

The annual meeting of the Illinois Holstein-Friesian association will also be held in Dixon following the completion of the cow testing station and a very interesting program which is being arranged will attract cattle breeders from all parts of the state to this city on that occasion.

PACKERS PREPARE TO FILL PLACES OF ALL MEN WHO LEAVE JOBS

BULLETIN.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 3.—Subpoenas for the officials of five Kansas City, Kan., locals of the Amalgamated Association of Meat Cutters & Butcher Workmen of America were issued by the Kansas court of industrial relations, sitting in Kansas City, Kan., today, following failure of the union representatives to appear before the court in response to summonses for a hearing on the packing workers strike set for Monday. The sheriff of Wyandotte county and his deputies were sent out to serve the subpoenas.

BULLETIN.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Dec. 3.—Packing house workers in Kansas City have been advised to disregard the orders of the Kansas Industrial Court, and to go on strike on Monday morning, when the union strike order goes into effect in all packing centers, it was announced today by Dennis Lane, secretary of the Amalgamated Meat Cutters & Butcher Workmen of North America.

No request for an earlier strike had been received, as indicated in dispatches from Kansas City, according to Mr. Lane.

"We have sent special instructions to go ahead with the strike in Kansas, however," Mr. Lane said. "The Kansas Industrial Court is a joke to us."

The Corn Belt Packing Company of Dubuque, Iowa, employing about 200 men, has agreed to continue the present scale of wages, and the men there will not go on strike on Monday, according to advices received today by Secretary Lane. The company has taken down its posters announcing a wage cut, Mr. Lane's advices said.

Chicago, Dec. 3.—(By The Associated Press) Coinciding with an order from Armour & Company of the "Big Five" packers that all employees who walk out on Monday in protest against the 10 per cent wage reduction will lose their places, advertisements signed by Swift & Company appeared in the papers today calling for men to fill the vacancies if the union men strike.

The situation in Kansas City, Kan., where representatives of the union were summoned before the Kansas industrial court, was brought to the attention of international officials of the Amalgamated Meat Cutters & Butcher Workmen of North America today and it was reported the Kansas men asked permission for a walk-out today to avoid appearance before the industrial court.

Don't Fear Walkout
Officers of the "big five" packers have made plain their intention to continue operations and declared they do not fear a walkout on a large scale. Union leaders say there are 35,000 union men in the plants of the "big five," distributed throughout 15 cities.

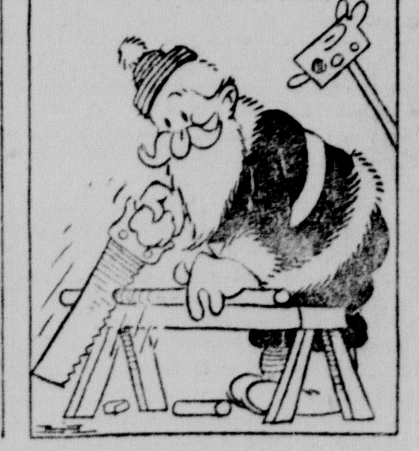

Four of the large packers have adopted the shop representation or similar systems in their plants and it was the Armour shop committee which last night issued the warning that strikers would lose their places.

"More than 75 per cent of the elected employees' representatives of all plants," an official announcement from Swift & Co. said, "voted either favorable on the readjustments (of wages) or to leave the matter to the management."

SCHEDULES OF BIG TEN TEAMS LIKELY TO BE UNCHANGED

Probable Foot Ball Aggregations Will Play Same Opponents.

Chicago, Dec. 3.—(By The Associated Press) — The annual meeting of the Western Conference Athletic director and coaches in the various college sports, opened here today with formulation of the 1922 schedules being given paramount consideration.

Few changes are expected in the football schedules of the eleven which finished at the top of the percentage column last fall. Iowa, the 1921 champion, is seeking games with the stronger teams, and former opponents of Minnesota are talking over the arrangement of games with the Gophers earlier in the season. For the last three years Minnesota teams have made a showing which has been disappointing to their followers.

Illinois, too, had a disastrous season in 1921, but dates with the Illini are much sought after because of the strong showing made by the team in past years as winner or runner-up for the conference title.

Chicago and Ohio State, it is indicated, may have virtually that same schedules as last year and few changes are expected in the Wisconsin series.

Notre Dame is here looking for conference games, but no indication has been made of the teams they will offer to play.

An Ohio-Wisconsin contest is still improbable, according to reports as their differences have not been straightened out. Iowa hopes to arrange contests with Chicago and Illinois and still maintain the schedule so that the team can go east to play Yale on Oct. 14. Chicago has under consideration the request of Princeton to play the inter-sectional game here next year a week later than it was played last season.

A change in wrestling rules which makes all matches under the auspices of the Western Intercollegiate Gymnastic, Wrestling and Fencing association one fall affairs, instead of the best two out of three, was the most important action of the association, it was announced today.

The championships in the three divisions of the association will be determined March 17-18 at the University of Wisconsin.

LAST OF KABER SLAYERS UNDER ARREST; ITALY

Man Alleged to Have Wielded Knife is Apprehended.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Cleveland, Dec. 3.—Vittoria Pisselli, said to have stabbed to death Daniel Kaber, wealthy Lukewood publisher, two years ago, has been caught in Ripalimosani, Italy, according to word received here from two Cleveland detectives. He is being held there pending word from the Italian ambassador at Washington.

Assistant County Prosecutor Walter Krewson is en route today to Washington to present the facts to the ambassador.

As there is no extradition treaty between the United States and Italy for capital offenses, Pisselli probably will be tried in that country. In that event the detectives will remain there and testify against him.

Pisselli is the last of six alleged conspirators in the Kaber murder plot to be arrested. According to an alleged confession of Salvatore Cala, serving a life term for implication in the plot, Pisselli stabbed Kaber while Cala held the victim. They were to have been paid $5000 by Mrs. Eva Catherine Kaber, the slain man's widow, who also was convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment.

REPORT FATTY MAY BE FREED OF ALL BLAME

Case Went to Jury at 4 O'clock Friday Afternoon.

BULLETIN.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
San Francisco, Dec. 3.—The jury considering the evidence submitted in the trial of Roscoe C. Arbuckle, on a charge of manslaughter in connection with the death of Miss Virginia Rappe, returned to the jury room from its hotel at 10 o'clock this morning.

Reports that the trial was divided 11 to 1 for acquittal persisted today, but there was nothing to give any great amount of tangibility to this report. Corridor gossip said that one woman was holding out for conviction.

Arbuckle appeared a few minutes before 10 o'clock. He chatted with newspapermen and others in apparently carefree manner.

TO JURY FRIDAY P. M.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
San Francisco, Dec. 3.—Nothing remained of the Roscoe C. Arbuckle manslaughter trial today but a verdict and, if that was adverse to him, a sentence.

The fate of the comedian, accused of having caused the death of Virginia Rappe, motion picture actress, was given to the jury shortly after four o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Jury work was current last night that the jury, composed of seven women and five men, stood 11 to 1 for acquittal, but no agreement had been reached at 11 o'clock and the debating ceased, to permit the members to retire for the night.

A throng that packed the courtroom and corridors outside in the hope of hearing the verdict expressed disappointment when the jury was locked up for the night.

Started November 14. The Arbuckle trial started November 14 and a week was spent in selection of the jury. The main witnesses for the prosecution were Zeh Prevost and Alice Blake, show girl, F. O. Heinrich, finger print expert, and a number of physicians and nurses. The medical experts testified that injuries to the bladder, such as caused Miss Rappe's death, usually resulted from the application of external force.

The prosecution contended that the injury was the result of an attempt by Arbuckle to attack Miss Rappe during a party in his room in a hotel during the afternoon of September 6. A technical examination by a medical commission of three appointed by the court to examine Miss Rappe's bladder, showed that a condition of the court and jury. Gavin McNab, defense attorney, declared report "absolutely corroborated" the deposition of Dr. Maurice Rosenberg, who treated Miss Rappe supposed for a bladder disorder in 1913.

Told of Finger Prints.
Finger prints on the doors of Arbuckle's room were said by Heinrich to be those of Arbuckle and Miss Rappe, and indicated, according to the testimony, that Arbuckle attempted, presumably, to force that young woman away from the doors.

Dr. E. E. Runwell, who attended Miss Rappe after the alleged injury, testified for the defense that Miss Rappe told him she was "somewhat intoxicated" and did not know what happened to her. Arbuckle himself was the pivotal witness for the defense. He said at the time he is alleged to have inflicted the injury on Miss Rappe he was actually endeavoring to assist her during a period of illness. He did not know that Miss Rappe was in his house where the attack was alleged to have taken place, until he found her in pain on the floor of his bathroom, he said.

Much medical testimony also introduced by the defense. Other witnesses were Al Semanacher, manager of Miss Rappe's motion picture interests, for the prosecution, and Fred Fischback, a friend of Arbuckle, for the defense.

DR. LORENZ TO BE UNWELCOME; SURGEON SAY

Dozen Chicagoans Do Not Want Austrian to Go There.

Chicago, Dec. 3.—Twelve prominent Chicago physicians issued a joint statement today pointing out the harm to invalids they thought would arise from publicity given to Dr. Adolph Lorenz, the Vienna surgeon who is expected to visit Chicago soon. It was announced unofficially that a number of Chicago hospitals have decided not to invite Dr. Lorenz to their clinics.

The statement said that the American medical profession looked with disfavor on newspaper publicity of the type Dr. Lorenz has received and added:

"Such publicity inevitably will arouse a response amounting to hysteria, which will bring so many unfortunate cripples of all sorts—so many incurable—that careful, deliberate examination of their illness will be physically impossible and bitter disappointment will come to many hopeful sufferers led to expect the impossible. "The public does not realize that the first operation, or treatment, is a deformity case is only the beginning, and few surgeons are willing to take upon themselves the responsibility and trouble involved in giving the post-operative care, which may last several months or years, in cases which have been operated by someone else."

The statement was signed by doctors Wallace Blanchard, John Ridlon, John L. Porter, Edwin W. Ryerson, Frederick Cleveland West, Charles M. Jacobs, Charles A. Parker, Henry B. Thomas, Robert O. Gutter, Philip Lewin, Beveridge H. Moore and E. J. Berkleiser.

Health Department Acts Again, Orders Woman to Clean Up

Officers of the city health department with Chief Van Bibber this morning went to the home of Max Epstein on Nachusa avenue south of Broadway, where reports had been made of the unsanitary condition of the place. The Epsteins lived on Depot avenue near Seventh street until last September and while in that place, the health department was obliged to issue an order, instructing the family to clean up.

The condition as found by City Physician J. B. Werren, Commissioner John J. Armstrong and Chief Van Bibber this morning was almost unbelievable. The house was in a deplorably filthy condition with the woman in bed and no fire in the stove, although there was plenty of fuel about, the officers say.

Following the investigation, the woman was given until Monday morning to clean up the premises, the health department to make another trip to the place and make another investigation at that time. Unless the order of the department is carried out, prosecution will follow.

Railroad Officer Shot to Death in Peoria Last Night

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Peoria, Ill., Dec. 3.—Fred H. Walls, C. B. & Q. railroad detective, was found shot to death in the Burlington railroad yards this morning, after what police believe to have been a running fight with freight car thieves. Three bullet wounds were found in his body.

Arthur Kircher, who staggered into a restaurant a few blocks away with two bullet wounds, is under police guard at a local hospital suspected of being involved in the killing. Kircher, whose condition is said to be serious, was also shot last winter when federal agents believed him about to attempt a whisky theft at a local distillery. Kircher's father and two other men are being held for investigation.

WHITE HOUSE ENDORSES CHRISTMAS SEALS

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

December 10, 1921

My dear Dr. Harkins:

I am glad to note the splendid
success of the campaign against tuberculosis, as shown by the sale of the seals in 1920, to the remarkably low level of 11 per cent. The success of the campaign is evident from these figures, which indicate the success of the work of the National Tuberculosis Association
and its affiliated organizations.

As Secretary Vice President of the Association, I will be glad to have you copy up
all who are interested in the prevention of tuberculosis, up against the sale of the Christmas seals. I am sure that the sale will be completely successful, in order that your splendid work may be further developed. I trust that there may be a generous response to your appeal.

Very sincerely,

Wm. H. Harding

LIVE NEWS FROM DEMENTTOWN

Always Fresh and Wholesome "A LIVE TOWN OF OUR OWN"

Pretty crimp this morning.

Saturday's business was going fast
this morning. The avenue was filled with Sunday shoppers, or rather with persons, shopping for Sunday dinners.

Owen Clymer made his usual Saturday visit to the avenue seeing the merchants.
Eddie Dewey, Peoria passenger conductor, was pulling the private car
of Division Superintendent Dolan of the Northwestern southern lines. The superintendent with a small office
force was aboard the car.

No. 18, eastbound, was reported two hours late this morning. Operator Trautman declared the lateness was due to heavy snow in the west—but,
we presume from now until early
spring, all late trains are made late
by "heavy snow storms in the west."
Why not, we have no way of telling.

H. W. Gossard factory will be closed down for several days. Moral—
Ladies wear more corsets.
Spot Harrington will make a visit
with friends and relatives Sunday in West Chicago.

William O'Malley of Freeport is
here visiting friends and relatives.
William still holds a responsible position with the I. C. at Freeport. He was a former yardmaster here.

LEGION AND N. E. A. UNITE IN EDUCATION WEEK

President Dixon Auxiliary Receives Bulletin on Work.

Editor—Through the columns of the Evening Telegraph I request every citizen of Dixon and vicinity to comply with this bulletin received by me too late for each one to be personally interviewed.

Mrs. John Strub,
President American Legion Auxiliary Post 12.

The National Educational Association
and the American Legion have joined together to hold an American Education Week, Dec. 4 to 10, 1921.

Alvin M. Owsley, Director of National Americanism Commission suggests the following for American Legion Auxiliary Unit activities:

1—Ask ministers of all denominations of faith to preach on the subject of Education Sunday, Dec. 4.

2—Ask the merchants through the Chambers of Commerce or Boards of Trade to use as much of their advertising space as possible to promote
this week and the necessity for education. Also use window displays appropriate for the occasion. If your city does not have a Chamber of Commerce then make the above request
through the Post.

3—Ask the mayor to issue a proclamation calling upon the people to observe his week.

4—Ask the moving picture theaters
to run slides—such as "The foundation of every state is the education of its youth." "A cultivated mind is the guardian genius of Democracy and when guided and controlled by virtue is the noblest attribute of man."

5—Supply speakers for the Schools, Rotarians, Kiwanis Clubs, etc., to talk upon the subject of Education.

6—Ask all newspapers to print as many editorials and articles as possible dealing with the subject of Education.

Remember, the country looks to
the American Legion to show the way in patriotism and education—
service to community, state and nation. Do your part to make American Education Week a success.

FATHERS AND SONS HAD FINE MEETING IN PALMYRA CHURCH

Banquet and Addresses Auspices Lee County Y. M. C. A. Friday.

Success crowned the efforts of the people of Sugar Grove, Palmyra township last night in their fathers' and sons' banquet under the auspices of the County Y. M. C. A. and the first of its kind under the supervision of County Secretary A. E. Conrad.

More than one hundred persons sat
at the banquet tables in the basement
of the church and never did the ladies
of the community serve a better banquet.

Immediately after the meal everyone gathered in the church parlor
where the program of the evening
was carried out. The big feature of the program was music—plenty of it and all of a splendid quality. Miss-man's orchestra of Dixon furnished a program of inspiring selections. Mrs.
Leon Hart was the accompanist. Miss Lawton of Palmyra is a member of this orchestra.

The solo numbers were given by
LeRoy Buhler, and Miss Marion
Weitzel of Dixon. Sec. Conrad and Miss Weitzel rendered a very pleasing vocal duet, and Mrs. Carl Straw, Pal-myra's very promising reader, gave a reading that was well received. Both the reader and the soloists responded
to encores.

Kath Stewart was the chairman of
the affair and introduced Frank Sills,
as the toastmaster of the evening.
Mr. Sills delivered a happy speech before assuming the responsibilities of the evening's program.

Bert Pearl offered the prayer, which opened the program.

Austin Powers, of Prairieville, was unable to be present, but his place on the program was well filled by H. A.
Ahrens of Dixon, who talked on the subject, "Our Boys." Mr. Ahrens' deep interest in boys qualifies him to handle well such a theme. The speaker declared that our boys should
live the life of today, and not to emphasize the struggle of the life of tomorrow. "By all means let the boy
have his play life," declared the speaker. Mr. Ahrens also called attention to the fact that in point of character we are what we are and are not what people think we are. Our boys of today will make the country
twenty years hence. In concluding his address the speaker made a strong
plea for oldtime religion.

"Our Dads,"

Herman Heckman, a promising
young man of Palmyra, spoke briefly
on the subject, "Our Dads." Mr.
Heckman is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
Jacob Heckman. The young man declared that the Dads are not so bad
after all, and they mean well towards the boys. He declared that there are times when the father places too much confidence in the son and also takes too many things for granted. Dad
should always have the welfare of the son in his mind and the son should never betray the confidence of the Dad.

"The American Boy," was the theme
of a thirty minute address by Representative John H. Byers. The speaker
discussed every phase of boy life and made a strong plea of the Y. M. C. A.,
the great institution which rightly belongs to the boy, and one of the institutions aside from the home and the church that fits the American boy
for his life's work. Mr. Byers declared that the boy should attend church
more. He should make church a part of his week's work. He made a plea
for a stronger and closer relationship between father and son. They should be pals, so to speak. "Together with the oldtime religion there should be more of the oldtime home life," declared the speaker. "The boy is the biggest asset the country has, for in time of need, when the war clouds
gather, it is the boy who comes forward to defend the flag and to carry
it into dangerous ground," said Mr.
Byers.

"My Interest in the Y,"

Wilbur Cortright, the first county
Y. M. C. A. president in the state of Illinois, told of his deep interest in the county Y work. Mr. Cortright is president of the Lee County Y and he reviewed the work done by the county Y during the past three years. He is sincere in his work and he is doing
a remarkable work for the young men of the county. His address was highly appreciated and made a strong impression upon his audience.

Secretary Conrad closed the meeting with a few remarks concerning his
work and future programs for the winter. Owing to the lateness of the hour
he did not take up the subject assigned to him.

YOU, HE AND SHE

The shifting of American women,
from the home into business, has
reached the point where there is one woman to every four men "earning
their own living."

This is shown by an analysis of the latest reports covering the census
taken in 1920.

With a total population of 105,768-771 men, women and children, the United States has 41,699,192 "gainfully employed." Of these 8,469,207 are women.

Housewives—the hardest workers
of all—are not included among those "gainfully employed." Probably this is because most of them work without gain, for love.

One of these days, housewives will
be on salaries, with laws compelling
husbands to give their wives a proper
percentage of their earnings.

Early settlers of America made their living with ax, spade, hoe and
gun. Time and a complex civilization
have turned human economies
into such an intricate machine that
the majority of us have no clear conception of our relation to the whole
works.

The cog knows that it must click
so many times a day. It doesn't see all the wheels. The face of the watch
with its moving hands, is the combined result of all the wheels. None of us gets a good idea of what the hands are registering. It takes the perspective of centuries to determine
just how much the watch is deviat-
ing from correct time.

Our system of economics is intricate, yet simple. Think of it in terms
of 106 people instead of nearly 106, 000,000, and it works like this, in
rough figures:

Thirteen working in manufacturing industries.
Eleven growing food and forests.
Four acting as salesmen.
Three doing special "personal service."
Three keeping the records.
Three providing transportation.
Two serving as doctors, dentists,
lawyers, etc.

One mining and preparing minerals.

One in public service.
That accounts for 41 "gainfully employed." The rest of the 106 are keeping house, going to school, lifting, or segregated under lock and
key.

Multiply the above figures by 1-000,000 and you have, roughly, figures for our whole population.

Where is it all leading us? If you could come back to Dixon 1000 or
even 500 years hence, what would life
be like?

Probably you would find a city of
big buildings, each with its kitchens,
housecleaners and nurseries for
many families. Plenty of apartments
already have the germ of this idea.

Future civilization will have a system so complicated that the best auditor of 1921 could not grasp its workings.

LI HUNG CHANG

Did you ever have to grit your teeth, in polite circles, to keep from
telling some one exactly what you thought of him?

Did you ever stop to think what a commotion there would be if everybody spoke their real thoughts instead of salving each other?

Civilization turns us into turtles.
We live in hard shells, solitary, keeping most of our real thoughts to ourselves. When the turtle head emerges from the shell, it usually engages in artificial, masked conversation.

If you are too plain about saying
what you think, you are apt to be jailed, fired or ostracized. Observing which, most of us are wary, conforming to a social code based on deception and secrecy.

The most remarkable visitor that

ever came to America was Li Hung Chang, Chinese diplomat.

When he toured our country in 1896, he was 73 years old, mysterious
and inscrutable. What especially delighted and dumfounded Americans
was that Li Hung Chang "made no bones" in talking. He said exactly what he thought.

Introduced to a woman of prominence, he asked: "How old are you?
Do you quarrel with your husband?
Is your bad temper to blame? What makes those wrinkles in your face?"

To a rich man he was apt to say:
"How much money are you worth?
Did you get it by working for it, or
did some one else earn it for you?"

This bluntness, and an uncertainty
as to whether or not he was kidding
us, made Li Hung Chang a sensation
when he toured America 25 years ago. He asked his bland questions
with a child-like simplicity that made
them inoffensive.

You would think that a man of Li Hung Chang's bluntness would not get very far in life without being forcibly sidetracked.

Not so. He was a financial success
personally, combining diplomatic
genius with Rockefeller business sagacity.

As a public character, he was a still greater success. He had the clairvoyant gift of looking into the future. So did John Hay, then our secretary of state. Together they originated, in September, 1899, "the open door" policy for China.

You are hearing a lot about that policy now, and troubles that have risen because it was not lived up to.

The Chinese at the arms limitation
conference are having hard sledding.
That's because they lack a great leader like Li Hung Chang. Too bad, too, that Li Hung Chang is not living to tell the conference what the rest of us are only thinking.

KING CHEPHREN

Digging into Egyptian tombs 5000
years old, American scientists find nine heads carved out of stone. These heads are duplicates of the real heads
of King Chephren and his family,
who ruled Egypt 5000 years ago.

Ancient Egyptians wanted to show
up in the Great Beyond, just as they looked in life. If their skulls turned to dust or got lost in the perils of the journey into the hereafter, the stone
heads were supposed magically to serve as substitutes.

To keep the souls of ancient ruling
Egyptians from becoming lonesome,
hundreds of subject people were buried alive with the bodies of the rulers.

Kings had unpleasant customs and
the human brain strange ideas before
democracy, education and Christianity got on the job.

JEWELS

Even the rich are feeling the hard times. Importations of diamonds and other precious stones this year will not be much more than $37,000,000.
That compares with $105,273,543 in 1919.

Diamonds make up over two-thirds of the value of imported gems. Figures on diamond importations so far this year suggest that the engagement rings are feeling the pinch of depression. Brides of 1919 were favored by the psychological moment.

The steady rise has been due to
health education, the real elixir of life.

In the year 2070, Red Cross experts
predict, the average life will be 100 years. Consoling Trouble is, few of us will be here to enjoy it. Like telling a hungry man that port-
house steaks will grow on trees a few
centuries hence.

OUCH!

Admirers of Marshal Foch presented him a live American wildcat.
The news evidently traveled to Montreal, for a French-Canadian gave Mayor Martin a black bear cub. The mayor stooped to pet it and got bitten in the leg.

This novel custom, of presenting
wild beasts as a token of esteem, has interesting possibilities. Landlords
should examine newly arrived crates
with exceeding caution before opening them.

The man who pays house and office
rent is the lesser of two evils.

The mason nursed a broken heart.
A broken heart he could not fix.
But, practicing his trade and art,
He lost his woe in laying bricks.

The architect was wracked in grief.
As deep a grief as any man's,
Till in his work he found relief.
And lost his sorrow in his plans.

The great composer bathed in woe.
He moaned his trouble, night and
noon,
But there was work to do—and so
He lost his sorrow in a tune.

The poet's soul was filled with muck.
A darkness black as any curse,
Till in despair he turned to work
And lost his sorrow in his verse.

Yet architect, composer, bard
And mason, cursed the daily need
That drove them to their labors hard.
Ah, men are silly folk, indeed!

Common Sense Ways to Keep Well
HEADACHE POWDERS

BY DR. R. H. BISHOP

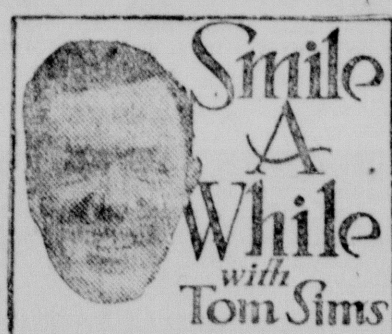

It is ignorance that prompts so
many women to hasten immediately
for pills or powders when their heads
begin to ache.

It were not ignorance they would
know that a headache is always a
symptom of something more serious.
Therefore, instead of resorting to headache powders, the thing to be done is to find out at once what is wrong and correct it.

In most cases the victim of a
headache either lets it wear itself out,
in which case it invariably returns,
or she doses herself with pills or powders.

It is a strange fact that a headache
may come from any one of a dozen
ailments, and it is often extremely difficult to locate the exact seat of the trouble. They may be defective
teeth or eyestrain, there may be irritation in the nasal passages, or it
may be the first evidence of a brain
tumor.

It may signify disease of the kidneys, or of the arteries. It may mean
poisoned blood, whether from tea,
lead, tobacco or intestinal toxins. It may mean an impoverished blood as
in anemia, or it may mean fatigue of
the nervous system which is called neurasthenia.

Freight rate makers must eat hay.

The Stillman case is going into Canada. We hoped it would go to a hotter instead of colder place.
Politicians seem to think that to turn
about is fair play.

One thing that is sweeping this country is vacuum cleaners.

Russia is tearing up 1000 miles of

WILLIAM E. BARTON.

And after a time, they looked and he
bold, they were going Seventy Miles
an Hour.

And they became Greatly Interested.
And the fireman was sprinkling in
the coal, and keeping the steam pressure just where it belonged, and he
hold the train climbed up to Eighty-Four miles an Hour.

And when they pulled into Buffalo,
the way were hot with the reports
of the flight of that train.

And the World's Record for a long distance run was broken.

Now, listen unto me, all ye men who stand idly upon life's Slide Track
thinking that there is no great place
in life for you. Hauling freight on a Branch Line is no disgrace, but highly honorable. Yet are there men who are fooling away life on Short Hauls of Less Than Car-Load Lots, who ought to get out onto Life's Main Track, and actually Get There.

I am no longer young, but I am running on the Main Line, with the Throttle Wide Open, and the Track Clear; and I invite other men who are no longer young, but who are capable of Going Some, to back out of the Round House and undertake some job worth while and renew their Youth.

CONFESSIONS OF A MOVIE STAR

CHAPTER XXXIX.
JIMMY SAVES ME FROM FLAMES.

Rose did not leave until she had
handed me her latest trove of studio
gossip.

"All the girls are doing up their
hair as you do yours," she announced.
"That's a test of your popularity,
honey! It's well to be popular now-a-days, and to be able to prove it. The movie theaters are closing in lots of towns. Henry says the producing end is lowering down in consequence. But as long as you can keep the fans doing
up their coiffures like yours, you'll hold your job. You'll eat when some of us are starving."

"How—starving?"
"If you ask me—I never save a penny! Neither does Henry!"

I was sympathetic but minus a vocabulary to fit the situation. I was thinking how grateful I ought to be to Motherdear, who had advised a certain budget for me. From the beginning of my contract, a certain fixed
portion of my salary had gone into
my savings account every payday.

Rose knew, it appeared.

"You'll be all right, honey, even if you don't work for a year. Your Motherdear has a long head. We all know that. Henry says the boys were talking about it the other day.

They said she must have Scotch ancestors."

"Whom do you mean by 'the boys'?"
"Coteridge and Cissy." Rose lowered her voice. "Honey—let an old woman advise you. When a man like Cissy Sheldon gets sentimental, go a little slow, dearie! Go a little slow!"

Rose left me to meditate upon this advice. As usual, she had been none too clear. Was she suggesting that Cissy was wooing me on account of my earning powers? My pride had received a big bump. Could it be possible that Cissy or any other man
would make love to me because I had a handsome savings account?

My bad day ended worse than it began.

A fire set was to be shot. Mother-
dear came to the studios as usual
when a scene is dangerous.

That day something went wrong
with the current which runs the draft fans. I was supposed to be surrounded by flames and it turned out that I actually was. The draft through which I was supposed to exit failed

to materialize. Motherdear, from her point of view, failed to see my danger.

A little flame caught one corner of my chiffon negligee. A thrill of terror shook me. The director, unaware of what had happened, cried:
"Blen! Blen!"

And then Dick rushed through the
flames and I ran into his arms crying:

"Jimmy! Jimmy!"
When I regained consciousness, I was in my dressing room. Said Mother-
dear:

"Your hair wasn't singed a particle
little girl. There isn't a red spot on
you. I must thank the new man."

"The new man?" Motherdear had not recognized Jimmy in his makeup.
"He threw his coat over your head
and shoulders. He went home with his arm bandaged."

Then we wept together. The most experienced movie stars are badly
scorched, once in a while, when they play with fire.

SOMETHING ON GEORGE M'MANUS

By Erich Brandeis

A prosperous looking gentleman walked into the dining room of the Hotel Astor, quietly sat down at one of the tables by the window and ordered luncheon. He opened the comic page of the New York American and became deeply engrossed in the cartoons.

"Who is that fellow?" asked one of the men at the next table, where several theatrical and literary stars were assembled. "His face is familiar and yet I can't place him."

Suddenly Wilton Lackaye, the actor, arose.

"I'll bet that's George McManus plus a mustache. I'll go and ask him."

"Pardon me, am I speaking to Mr. McManus?" he inquired as he stepped over to the dignified stranger's table.

And even before the question was answered, he knew that he was right, for the "d. s." was reading "Bringing Up Father."

"You certainly are," McManus laughed. "I just wanted to see whether I could fool you fellows."

And proudly he told his friends—whom he joined—the story of his newly acquired mustache. For many years he had been an admirer of Douglas Fairbanks and never missed

WOMAN CANNOT RECALL NAMES OF HER HEROES

But She Had Another Picked Out When U. S. Acted.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Dec. 3.—Federal agents broke up Mrs. Helen Drexler's matrimonial-government allotment plan just as she was making plans to marry her seventeenth husband in three years, according to her story today to Captain Thomas I. Porter of the Secret Service. By listing as the son of each husband the little boy born from her second experience in matrimony, she added $5 a month extra to the flood of allotment checks she received from the government, she said. Federal officials calculated she had received $500 a month.

"I was working in Boston when I met Wilfrid Taylor," she related. "The draft got him and soon after landing in France he was killed."

Mrs. Drexler's brother was also killed in action overseas, and her little boy is Wilfrid Taylor's son.

"I had to go to work or get married so I got married," she said. "Several months afterward my husband joined the navy, so I got two allotment checks. John Kelly of the Brooklyn navy yard was the next. I left him and married another sailor."

"Dear me, I can't remember all the names. Finally I came to Chicago and married three sailors in quick succession. Albert Drexler, a Camp Grant soldier, was the sixteenth. I had a sailor picked out for the next but your agents arrested me."

Tame Deer Seen in Vicinity of Ashton

Great excitement prevailed among the school kids Monday p. m. when the report spread that one of Santa Claus' reindeers had broken out and was in Killmer's pasture just west of the city limits.

Frank Oberg, who has had experience in deer hunting in the Wisconsin woods was one of the many business men who went out to see the animal. He pronounced it a buck deer, either four or five years old, and thought it was not of the wild variety.

The deer cleared fences four feet or more with ease. It jumped from a field out onto the Lincoln Highway and an approaching car frightened it and it then jumped from the highway over a deep ditch into Benj. Yenchich's corn field. The deer came from the north and returned in that direction. Four deer were reported in the neighborhood of Hunt's Grove Sunday evening.—Ashton Gazette.

Elgin Team Given Welcome in East

Ansonia, Conn., Dec. 2.—The Elgin, Ill. high school football team, which is to play an inter-sectional game with Ansonia high school tomorrow, received a noisy welcome when it arrived last night. Headed by a drum corps the entire student body of the local high school marched to the railroad station, where a crowd of four or five thousand persons had gathered. Red fire was burned and when the train rolled into the station, the high school yells were drowned in the cheers which greeted the visitors.

The Elgin football squad is made up of 19 husky youths, who look as if they would give Ansonia a hard battle.

Bought Eggs for 12 Cents, Sold 'em for 65 is Charge

Washington, D. C., Dec. 2.—Eggs bought from farmers of Michigan last spring at prices as low as 12c a dozen are being sold by one of the big five meat packers to the public at the same local cities at 40 to 50c a dozen. John G. Clark, wholesale grocer of Bad Axe, Mich., testified before the government commission considering the advisability of modifying the consent decree which, on becoming effective next February, will prohibit the big five meat packers from handling side line food products.

Packers are active in distribution of canned foods in Michigan. Mr. Clark said, shipping non-perishable products in refrigerator cars which are moved rapidly by railroads. Opposing modification of the decree, the witness argued that if packers were permitted to distribute unrelated foodstuffs with their cars expedited in shipment, competitors without such preferred railroad service would be unable to remain in business.

BETH BECKER OWES HEALTH TO BEACH DANCING

MISS BETH BECKER

By NEA Service

Hollywood, Calif.—Dance your way to perfect health on the seashore—and in a bathing suit!

Just a little message to everybody, from Beth Becker, noted Denishawn dancer, who practiced what she preached before she started preaching it.

Seven years ago Miss Becker was wan and sickly—an invalid—due to a cyclone accident in Omaha, Neb.

Then she moved to the Pacific coast and went in for seashore romping in a bathing suit.

She calls what happened "a miracle." In ten months the paleness had faded out; a glow of health took its place and today Miss Becker is a statuesque beautiful professional dancer. She has appeared in over 400 public performances.

So much for the health angle. And, as to beauty—well, she was given the title of "The Perfect Blond of the Pacific Coast," at an artists' ball in Los Angeles.

"All the world would be better off in bathing suits," says Miss Becker. "Dancing on the sands in the shallow salt water, in pink fleshings, free decorated in seaweed, hair streaming, every muscle at work—it gives one the feeling of freedom and love of life which is simply indescribable."

"Immoral? How ridiculous! Nothing could be more inspirational and uplifting than a well developed human body."

Director U. S. Grain Growers Tells Plan

Robert N. Clarke, director of the U. S. Grain Growers, Inc., and chairman of the organization work in Illinois addressed the West Brooklyn Farmers' Elevator annual meeting at West Brooklyn Monday, Nov. 28th. About 100 farmers were present and took great interest in the talk by Mr. Clarke, who outlined the plans of the farmers' grain marketing association, and the details of the contract very thoroughly.

On a ballot by the stockholders of the elevator company before Mr. Clarke's address it was voted 89 to 33 that the elevator should sign a contract to handle members' grain.

Mr. Clarke also addressed a grain growers meeting at Amboy the same evening with about 45 present. Very bad roads kept the crowd down, and many from Franklin Grove, Ashton and other points on hard roads did not get to the meeting owing to weather conditions.

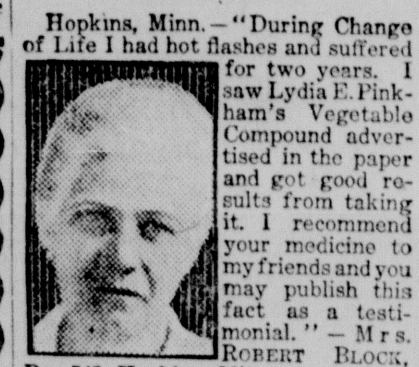

It is expected that Mr. Clarke will address the annual Farm Bureau meeting to be held at Amboy, Dec. 12, details of which will be announced later.

HOW WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

May Escape the Dreaded Sufferings of That Period by Taking Mrs. Block's Advice

Hopkins, Minn.—"During Change of Life I had hot flashes and suffered for two years. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised in the paper and got good results from taking it. I recommend your medicine to my friends and you may publish this fact as a testimonial." — Mrs. ROBERT BLOCK, Box 542, Hopkins, Minn.

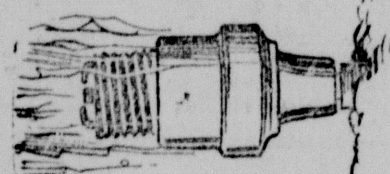

It has been said that not one woman in a thousand passes this perfectly natural change without experiencing a train of very annoying and sometimes painful symptoms. Those dreadful hot flashes, sinking spells, spots before the eyes, dizzy spells, nervousness, are only a few of the symptoms. Every woman at this age should profit by Mrs. Block's experience and try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., about your health.

Motor Notes

CARBON BURNED OUT

An easy way to clean out a dirty, sooty spark plug is to place it in the ground, terminal point down, fill the shell carefully with gasoline and light it. When the gasoline is burned out, practically all the carbon will have been cleaned out of it. Another good way to clean a plug is to soak it over night in alcohol.

PEDAL ADJUSTER

Two pieces of wood, with holes bored in them, and a pin are all that is needed to help the motorist repair the clutch or brakes. When adjusted against the clutch or brake pedal as shown, the combination will keep the clutch out and the brakes in the position wanted to equalize them.

THE HOT WATER CURE

One sure way to cure cold engines of the older type of automobiles, with long, exposed manifolds, is to place a rag over the intake pipe and pour hot water over it. Be sure not to cover up the air intake of the carburetor.

HEEL REST FOR TWO

This combination heel rest, placed at the proper distance from the throttle pedal, permits the motorists to maintain a steady flow of gas. Its two steps or recesses, are made to accommodate the heels of both men and women motorists.

PAPER CLIP HANDY TOOL

Keep a spring paper clip, like that shown, among your tools. When there is need of patching a punctured tube, the clip will be a handy vise in keeping the part under operation flat upon the fender or other table surface.

AUTO NOTES

Test the brakes before you go out. Calcutta, India, is to have a motor vehicle show from Dec. 19 to 21.

One out of 800 inhabitants of Germany owns an automobile.

Eighty-five per cent of all motor vehicles in South Australia are of American manufacture.

Nearly 16,000 small automobiles have been sold in London in the past six months.

Accessibility to working parts is a feature of the new small cars shown in England.

New York highway engineers are planning pavements to assure minimum noise.

Nearly 6 per cent of the automobiles in use in 1919 were discarded by the end of the year.

Chicago may equip its police and fire motor vehicles with wireless telephone instruments.

Thinking of Tomorrow

Q If by some magic the curtain of the future might be drawn back and you could see life as it will be ten or twenty years from today—where would you be?

Q You know the answer. The men and women who will then have the most independence and influence in our community will be the ones who today think and plan most wisely for the tomorrows—and hold themselves ready to take advantage of every opportunity that comes.

Q Nothing will help you more, five or ten years from now, than the dollars you can save by starting today—and you can save best by getting some bank to co-operate with you. VIGOR OF YOUTH IN A NEW DISCOVERY

Science Produces a Vitalizer Superior to Famous Gland Treatment—Magic Power of a Bark From Africa

Have you lost your youth, vigor and "pep"? Does life seem dull and work a grind? Don't worry. Science has discovered a new vitalizer superior even to the much discussed "goat gland" and "monkey gland" treatment.

The principal ingredient is an extract from the bark of an African tree. It is said to be the most amazing invigorator ever discovered. Combined with it are other tonic and vitalizing elements of proved merit. In most cases, the compound produces marked improvement in a day or two, and in a short time the vitality is raised, the circulation improved and the glow of health is felt in every part.

The new vitalizer contains expensive chemicals, but manufacturing in enormous quantities has brought the cost within the reach of all. Furthermore, the laboratories producing this new vitalizer, which is called Re-Nu-Tabs, are so confident of its power that they offer it on the basis of "no results, no pay."

Any reader of this paper may test the new discovery without risk. Send no money, but just your name and address, to the Re-Nu Laboratories, 283-C Gateway Station, Kansas City, Mo., and a full treatment of Re-Nu-Tabs will be mailed. Deposit $2 and postage with the postman on delivery. If not delighted by the results at the end of a week, notify the laboratories and your money will be refunded in full. Do not hesitate about accepting this test offer, as it is fully guaranteed.—Adv.
